

Journal of Recreation and Tourism Research

Journal home page: www.jrtr.org
ISSN:2148-5321

LEISURE BEHAVIOR OF EMPLOYEES IN HOSPITALITY INDUSTRY (Kuşadası Sample)

R. Pars ŞAHBAZ<sup>a</sup> Tolga GÜL<sup>b</sup>

<sup>a</sup>Gazi Üniversitesi, Turizm Fakültesi, Doç. Dr. (pars@gazi.edu.tr)

<sup>b</sup>Milli Eğitim Bakanlığı, Güvercinada M.T.A.L (tolgagulx@gmail.com)

EXTENSIVE SUMMARY

In this study, the leisure behavior of employees who are employed in the hospitality business is conducted to determine how they are evaluated. The scale of the study in 2015 which operates the tourist season in Kusadasi and the surrounding areas, Culture and Tourism Ministry a total of 747 employees working in businesses stay connected to occur from. Data collected to serve the working purpose, urban and non for the realization of recreational activities the government and considered by the local authorities / receipt of necessary recreational activities with a spatial context in recreational activities were obtained by questionnaire, where the scale developed in the basis of such classification.

And what types of recreational activities, where was examined and it is different in terms of their demographic and professional variables in employees' leisure time employees in research under the hospitality business.

According to the survey, those who provide services to people who are coming to accommodations for recreational activities, is determined to engage in recreational activities as efficient and effective in their spare time. The main results obtained other employees who work in the hospitality business, active labor-intensive work leisure time outside, passive participation prefer to engage in recreational activities.